2. The promotion is available to both AUD and USD base currency Accounts
3. This promotion is valid for new and existing Clients upon their first deposit during the promotion period only
4. The Bonus will be credited into your Trading Account on completion of your deposit, and after identification documents are submitted and verified, which includes, among others, the provision of:
 - 4.1 Proof of identity - A clear, up-to-date copy of a government-issued picture document that includes the Client's full name (as displayed in the Account), date of birth, and expiration date
 - 4.2 Proof of residence – A recent (not older than six months), clear copy of a bank statement, utility bill or local authority tax bill, indicating the Clients name (as displayed in the Account), date of issue and address of residence
5. Award will be credited according to the Trading Account's base currency
6. In order to withdraw your Award, you are required to execute a minimum trading volume of 10,000 base currency for every 1 base currency bonus within six months. If this is not met, the bonus will be cancelled and removed from your account
7. This promotion can be added to past awarded bonuses by TradeFred; their required trading volume will be combined, and you will need to trade the total volume in the six months since the first promotion was activated. If this is not achieved, the first bonus will be removed from your account, the combined volume will remain unchanged, and the count will continue
8. Only clients from Australia are eligible for this promotion
9. This Award can be given only once per household/IP address/phone number or a Customer
10. Inactive accounts – In cases where the Client has not traded for six months, a bonus can be added once they are active again
11. Miscellaneous:
 - 11.1 Abuse – Any improper or abusive trading, that is not in accordance with the Company's Client Retail Agreement, will result in the Award being revoked or not
